'ATALIVA' MALBEC 2015

wine review online

90

"Like so many Malbecs, this one is a big red wine, weighing in at a stated 14.5% alcohol, but unlike many, it doesn't finish sweet. There's enough structure to balance the fruit and ripeness and subtle earthy elements lend a welcome savory aspect. It's far more sophisticated, balanced and interesting than its price suggests. Drink it this summer with burgers on the grill." - M.A. (Aug 2016)
