BODEGA ANIELLO
'006' RIVERSIDE ESTATE
MALBEC 2014

Alta Valla del Rio Negro Patagonia (Argentina)

“The 2014 006 Malbec from Río Negro aims for a fruit-driven and fresh version of Malbec fermented in cement vats and matured in used barrels. There are some floral aromas and notes of black cherries, with good ripeness, intensity and spiciness. The palate is juicy with very round, sweet tannins and very good freshness. This is a very nice Malbec at a very attractive price. A name to follow in Río Negro, Patagonia.” - L.G. (Aug 2015)

Included among
YEARS' BEST ARGENTINE MALBEC

“From young vines planted in the Mainque area, in the heart of Rio Negro, this moves through the mouth with radiant red fruit flavors and a pungent clarity. A terrific value from Argentine Patagonia.” (Feb 2016)
