TASTING NOTES

'Poggio Gualtieri' is rich black ruby red in color. The bouquet is intense with red berry fruit overshadowed by cedar and spice. The nose is warm and smells of cedar and oak. The palate is full-bodied, well-structured, and balanced with accents of oak and cedar on the finish. Pairs well with traditional Tuscan cuisine, grilled meats, pasta dishes with hearty sauces, and aged cheeses.

ABOUT THE WINERY

Fattoria di Grignano is the site of a stunning villa built by the Marchesi Gondi in the 15th century and later completely rebuilt in its current form in the 18th century. Since 1972 it has been owned by the Inghirami family, one of the most important names in Italian fashion. The villa is the core of Fattoria di Grignano, located in the middle of a vast estate that stretched from the Sieve River into the hills above the town of Pontassieve, all within the Chianti Rufina designation zone.

Today, the estate covers nearly 600 hectares divided into 47 farms with orchards and arable crops, although wine and olive growing are the main activities. The old cellars of the historic villa were recently restored to their original splendour and a young, female winemaker Barbara Tamburini makes sure the wines live up to the grand location.
