GIOVANNI MANZONE BAROLO DOCG 'GRAMOLERE' 2011

“Elegant and tightly wound, this red offers cherry, berry, tobacco and mineral flavors. Compact now, yet persistent on the finish. Needs a few years to stretch out. Best from 2018 through 2030.”

- B.S. (April 30th, 2015)

“A firm and fresh wine with lots of fruit and spice character. Medium body, silky tannins, and a fresh finish. Better in 2017.”

- J.S. (April 2015)

“Dark berry, blue flowers, menthol and a balsamic note lead the nose. The structured palate delivers juicy red cherry, oak, cured meat, toast, espresso and licorice alongside assertive but fine-grained tannins.”

- K.O. (Nov 2015)
