"Wet minerals mix with the aromas of plums and dark berries. A herb and spice-driven palate with firm tannins. Juicy with good intensity." - J.S.

Made with 80% Sangiovese, 20% Canaiolo, organically farmed. With shorter ageing requirements than Vino Nobile, Rosso di Montepulciano is known for its freshness and youthful style backed up by the elegance of the sangiovese. The perfect accompaniment for pasta with meat sauces as well as cured meats and Tuscan cheeses.
