

LUNAE BOSONI
VERMENTINO 'BLACK LABEL' 2018

95

wine review online

'I know my editor, and others, are wondering how I could possibly could give 95 points to a Vermentino. Taste it and you'll see. Lunae Bosoni's so-called "Black Label," is longer, denser, more complex. In brief, it's a more complete wine. Both floral and mineral-infused, it's amazingly long and bright. It has enormous energy that persists into the finish and then some. It's one of the best Vermentinos I've ever had. Gambero Rosso, one of Italy's most prominent wine reviewers, has awarded this wine tre bicchieri (three glasses), its highest ranking, 10 years in a row. I'm betting this will be the 11th."
