CANTINE LUNAE BOSONI COLLI DI LUNI DOC VERMENTINO 'BLACK LABEL' 2014

“Forty dollars for a Vermentino, a wine more often found in the under $20 category, is an extraordinary price. But this one, Lunae’s Black Label and the winery’s flagship, is an extraordinary wine. After tasting the 2014, I can understand why Gambero Rosso, the prestigious Italian wine guide, has awarded the wine Tre Bicchieri (their highest accolade) for six consecutive years. The 2014 delivers alluring bright spice -- an almost white pepper quality -- and saltiness. Unencumbered by oak aging, its clean and crisp nature imparts a palate tingling vivacity that carries through to an exceptional finish. Each sip brings additional nuances, making it a delight to sip throughout a meal. Savor this Vermentino with simply grilled fish to allow the wine to shine. It will.” - M.A. (Aug 2015)

“Enticing aromas of rose, elderflower, apricot, grapefruit and white pepper are reinforced on the palate of this layered and expressive and mouthwatering white, ending with a long and savory aftertaste. Drink now through 2018.” - B.S. (Nov 2015)

“Lunae Bosoni is a rare case in Liguria’s winegrowing scenario. The 150 growers, the winery’s technical staff, and 15 hectares of its own vineyards guarantee Paolo Bosoni’s operation can produce a major range both in number of labels and quantity of bottles produced, making this a benchmark in the Colli di Luni DOC zone. The main features of wines here are their clear aromatic exuberance and richness of fruit.”

3 Bicchieri winner for 7 straight vintages: 2008-2009-2010-2011-2012-2013 and now 2014 vintage!
