CANTINE LUNAE BOSONI COLLI DI LUNI DOC VERMENTINO 'GREY LABEL' 2016

“I have extolled the virtues of Cantine Lunae Bosoni in the past, particularly their Vermentini. There’s no reason to stop now: Their 2016 “Etichetta Grigia” (or Gray Label) Vermentino is an exciting wine. (They also produce a more expensive one, Etichetta Nera, a.k.a. Black Label, though it’s hard to categorize the Grey Label as a so-called “entry-level” wine.) This is a broad-shouldered Vermentino conveying a touch of spice and creaminess to accompany its saline-tinged backbone. It has enough power to accompany a tomato-based fish stew, but still maintains grace and elegance.” - M.A. (August 2017)
