

MESA

PRIMO ROSSO (CARIGNANO) - SARDEGNA

Mesa is located in the South-Western corner of Sardinia, an area called Sulcis.

'Primo Rosso' (literally 'first red' of the family of wines) is an interesting blend of native Carignano with Syrah grapes. Deep ruby red in color. Rich aromas of ripe wild berry fruit. Well-structured and well-balanced with a long finish. A versatile wine that pairs well with a wide variety of cuisine, especially meat-based first courses and fat-rich fish.
