"A brambly and sappy smelling style. There's ample fresh red cherries, which lead to a long supple and fluid palate with a silky finish. Drink now."

100% Ruche' grapes: a secular vine that is probably the lower production varietal wine in Italy, grown only around the town of Castagnole Monferrato. It is a fragrant, slightly floral wine, with notes of tart berries and sweet spices. Pairs well with meat, game and also spicy dishes such as Thai or Indian cuisine.
