

PALAZZO

ROSSO DI MONTALCINO 2014

Rosso di Montalcino is made with the same grapes as its big brother Brunello (100% Sangiovese) and undergoes a similar vinification process, but the ageing is shorter (1 year in oak casks), so the structure is that of a younger wine, simple, elegant and fresh with lots of fruit on the nose which continues through to the palate. An extremely enjoyable wine that is suitable for any kind of dish, grilled or roasted meats, pasta dishes, cold cuts and medium-aged cheeses.
