TENUTA SANT'ANNA PROSECCO DOC ROSE' BRUT 2020

“At first blush, pun intended, you’d be forgiven for thinking Rosé Prosecco is a marketing tool combining two hot categories of wine. But this one is a serious wine. It has a substantial presence. You can’t help but take note of it. It’s not fluff. A whiff of wild strawberries and a hint of bitterness in the refreshing finish remind you it’s a real wine — and at a very attractive price.”

- M.A. (April 2021)

“The pretty color of this Prosecco rosé evokes the pale pink of cherry blossoms, with a fine, creamy mousse carrying an appealing range of white cherry, blood orange granita and pickled ginger. Snappy acidity drives the stony finish. Drink now.”

- A.N. (March 2021)
